THURSDAY, JULY 13, 1893

The emperor of Germany is contemplating a visit to this country and the World's Fair.

Will ex-representative So-and-so ever be heard of again since his late legislature so-and-so has adjourned?

The Republicans of the Sena-tional district composed of Criten-den and Webster will, in all probability, nominate Dr. W. J. DeBoe.

Gov. Brown wants no committee to codify the laws enacted by the last Legislature, so he has vetoed the act providing for one on the ground of unconstitutionality.

A destructive tornado visited a section of Iowa last week and laid waste to a large territory. Half a hundred people were killed and as many more severely injured.

The Christian Endeavorers have left Montreal, but not before a few of their number unwisely insulted
the French Catholics of that city.
The presence of militiamen prevented serious riot.

The Webster County Third Party
have not lost all hope. They have nominated W. F. Doris for their legislative candidate and J.
F. Porter for the County Superintendent of Schools.

An educational law of this State provides for the election of County School Superintendents in November, this year, whose term
of office will begin September 1st, 1894. Trot out your candidates and have this important office credibly filled.

The transfer of the Collector's office was made last Monday evening. Hon. John Feland has retired to the practice of law. Hon.
Joshua D. Powers, at the suggestion of President Cleveland, succeeds Mr. Feland.

EDITOR FOLK JOHNSON, of the Frankfort Capital says of his paper: "Not so frequently, but for the past eighteen months, but still bright, hopeful and clean, the Capital comes to its readers in a weekly form, and trusts that it may deserve, as it has hitherto received,
only words of praise during the re-mainding months of its life."

It has great pretensions as a newspaper, but as a brief and strict chronicler of the times, it has made a record for honesty,
cleanliness and directness of purpose that is better than much fine gold. Its purpose is to continue of the same line, and to finally die with all the world and the rest of man kind."

The Louisville Commercial's
correspondent at Morganfield, Kentucky, referring to the approaching trial of the accused Abbie Oliver murderer says: "The court does not propose to be trifled with." Surely it is to be hoped not. Trifling with justice is, indeed, a very serious matter. Is one to suppose the prevailing opinion there is that a miscarriage of justice will be brought about—that an attempt to bulldoze the court by intimidation or otherwise. Undoubtedly, public sentiment exists in Union County as well as elsewhere in the State,
but in a court of justice no sentiment should exist but that which is based upon the facts of the case. Above all, no prejudiced evidence is presented, particular facts and the perpetrator to go unloosed is, indeed,
the worst sort of a crime.

TIS HARD TO FIND

A better display of dredge goods and trimmings than J. T. Alexander has this season. It is a delight to be shown these goods and an exquisite delight to be the possessor of such patterns of dredge goods as are found at Alexander's, the leading store in Madisonville.

possession of the other.

Mr. W. G. Criss, of the Kid-society, vicinity, while in town on Saturday exhibited at this office a small rock found on his premises that was a great curiosity.

It has four corners, about three
three-quarters inches in length,
the center of which it has a vault,
and centrally located in this vault,
from end to end is a small petrified
root, which is about two feet long and two inches wide.

It was the practice in the early days of the country, when means of transportation and communication were slow, to give a notice of two days to the miners in the district that they would extract only the best coal.

Mr. Cleveland will remain at Buzzard's Bay until the first of August. It is understood that he will extract only the best coal.

He will extract only the best coal, and his men will be employed in the mines of the district.

A statement prepared by the controller of the currency shows that the amount of national bank notes outstanding is $176,614,335,
an increase during the fiscal year ended June 30 of $6,036,597.

There can be no doubt but that this singular stone, possessed by Mr. Criss, will attract a great deal of interested screw-tiny.

WORLD'S FAIR.

[From Our Regular Correspondent.]

WASHINGTON, July 10, 1893.

Both the political and the financial situation, and particularly the summer season at the National Capitol, were given an unexpected turn by the call of President Cleveland for an extra session of Congress to meet August 7. The announcement came as a great surprise to all the paid clerks and to everyone else. That the financial situation will be the first master to receive attention is generally conceded, but there is a conspicuous diversity of opinion as to how the difficulty will be met. The secrecy with which it was maintained about the contemplated action was unusual. The cabinet officers were undoubtedly warned to be particularly careful, and, until the information was finally given out from the White House, no one was aware of the importance of the special cabinet meeting.

It was Fourth of July celebration and well worth miles to participate in, and I did. Indeed, the eagles screamed louder, and the small boy was more happy. The display of pyrotechnics was unusually fine, and Lake Michigan, at times, looked like a million firecrackers. The White City was fairly alive with the singing multitude, and yet there was room for thousands more. The vast majority of the people were in the manufacturing buildings, for its whole quarter stretch, was one compact mile stretch.

Standards consider how large an army 325,000 people would form and then you can form some estimate of the throng which gathered to do homage to our flag on the day of the celebration of our independence.

The White City was a picture of humanity because of the vast numbers of people who had come to the fair to other recreations at will.

The weather continues fine, and in that respect there is no excuse for the people, staying at home. There are no such short lakes as those which can be crossed in a day, reasonable rates, that one can change about from the fair to these other recreations at will.

There is a great deal of interest in the Sherman law, and the question of what can be done with it is being hotly discussed.

The Sherman law, which was passed by the House, has been shifted from the shoulders of the House to those of Congress, and that the direct representatives of the people must carry out their dictated.

The illustrated lectures of the children's buildings have been a source of much interest and instruction. Mary, the daughter of the eminent astronomer, Richard Proctor, was invited with her to the fair, and there was a great deal of interest in that which wonderful exposition is forging. Her beautifully decorated pavilion was formally made of one of us and flowers, and as usual to make the place interesting.

The illustrated lectures of the children's buildings have been a source of much interest and instruction. Mary, the daughter of the eminent astronomer, Richard Proctor, was invited with her to the fair, and there was a great deal of interest in that which wonderful exposition is forging. Her beautifully decorated pavilion was formally made of one of us and flowers, and as usual to make the place interesting.

One of the humorous phases of the situation is the action of the children who allege unwillingness to visit Washington in summer time, because they declare it to be the abiding place of the excessive isolation. For a long while Washington was stigmatized as the home of malaria and it was the fashionable thing for men with uncontrollable appetites, pampered by official opportunity, to blame what Washingtonians termed "Confederation malaria" for their indisposition. That excuse has been threadbare these many months and no one uses it now, but in its place is heard references to the terrific summer heat from which the National Capital is supposed to suffer. The fact of the matter is that there are cities in this country that are more pleasant during the warm months than Washington. Broad avenues permit the free movement of wheeling bees, long shade trees cut off the sun, and the public buildings on its site cooling influences such as but few large centers of population enjoy.

The illustration of the great problem of Alaska has been a source of much interest, and the good result seems to have been obtained by the efforts of the miners in the north west corner of the government buildings. Many people think Alaska only produces sealskins. If you want to see them in the center, the woods around the grounds alone will surprise you, not mention what their soil produces.

One of the officials in charge of the construction of the new St. Bernard building here, says that when completed it will be one of the best structures in Western Kentucky.

Some years ago we bought from Russia that country known on the map as Alaska. Like many good things, we have to seek if we would find what we wanted. A telegraph line has been strung from the village of Seward when she adopts the plan of pensioning all working men over 60 years of age. This will be a humane world took part in the proceedings.

California's building was a scene of a pleasant reception given to the members of the board of directors.

At present the Capitol is not in a condition to receive company, but when Congress meets everything will be done to make it comfortable.

A great move will soon be taken in Seward when she adopts the plan of pensioning all working men over 60 years of age. This will be a humane world took part in the proceedings.

Strange indeed, that old a country should be so much a wonderland as ours.

On account of the difference in price of silver, thousands of miners in the far west have been thrown out of employment.

They are looking for work, but there is no work to be had.

It is a great pity that the miners in the state should be so much behind all others but the soul went up from them and died.

Let the rates be lowered and the people will come.

During the summer popular open-air orchestral concerts will be given every evening in front of the music pavilion on the lake front, with Theodore Thomas as conductor.

The Cincinnati band have engaged for the season and will be heard in the concert hall.

There is no talk of opposition to him, nor has there been any.

The general idea that thirty day's notice is required to call the miners to work is not true.

It was the practice in the early days of the country, when means of transportation and communication were slow, to give a notice of two days to the miners in the district.

It is understood that he will extract only the best coal.

He will extract only the best coal, and his men will be employed in the mines of the district.

A statement prepared by the controller of the currency shows that the amount of national bank notes outstanding is $176,614,335, an increase during the fiscal year ended June 30 of $6,036,597.

There can be no doubt but that this singular stone, possessed by Mr. Criss, will attract a great deal of interested screw-tiny.

Over in the administration building, the offices of its numerous officials, prof. Goodwin was telling audience what he knows about electricity.

The tenants of the gallery in manufacture building went through the pleasure of getting up a party to celebrate the anniversary of the admission of the state. The company agreed to pay the expenses of the entertainment and more stairways leading to their quarters. They are now in high dudgeon because these mighty politicians have ignored their request, in placing the petition at the door.

Mrs. Doris, a very estimable lady of Providence, died at her home in that place Monday. Mrs. Doris was the mother of Mrs. W. F. Doris, and was one of the very oldest ladies of that community.

The death of Mrs. Frank Perkins at Barstow last Sunday was, indeed, a sad one. She had for several days been a sufferer of injuries received from being gored and trampled on by an infuriated cow. Before death, mortification set in and owing to some unexplainable reason the body could not be buried till Monday. Under great difficulties, it was finally laid away in Gageoche cemetery.

Patrick Barrett, after an illness of several weeks died on Tuesday. For many years he was a well known and beloved citizen of this city, having come here from near Providence, Webster county, his remains were buried yesterday in the Catholic cemetery at this place.

We See You!

Primates Gets Another.

Last Friday, fire broke out in a room where soap was stored, and before the flames could be checked several thousand dollars worth of property went up in smoke. The principal losers were J. E. Keiv, C. E. Molin, Ralfe Dorn, M. V. Anglin, H. H. Gale, Hawley & Co. Ltd. One entire business block was destroyed. Undoubtedly the work of an incendiary.

Don't Mind the Weather.

It is not an unusual thing to see us, these days, thanking the stars that it is not hotter than it is, notwithstanding the fact that there is a bricklayer in town plying his trade in the glare of the broiling hot sun, bareheaded. Probably he is one of the many who came into this world bareheaded and has upon his head a handkerchief as a luxuriant and not necessarily. Oh, he writes and daughters * * * A word to the wise is sufficient.

Karla's Clover Root, the new Blood Purifier, gives freshness and clearness to the complexion and cures constipation. 25c. soc. and 40c. Sold by St. Bernard drug store.

Jack Stokes Gets Hurt.

While at work dressing down a piece of timber with an adz, just before noon on Monday, Jack Stokes, a tall and ugly fellow, the log, about two inches thick, the which penetrated the bone. A misdirected blow with the sharp tool is what caused the injury and confinement which it is Jack's lot to "grin and bear" for awhile at least. He will be well in a week or so, in a few days, enjoying life and his work in his usual way.

Ne Change
Our public school for the ensuing year will be conducted by the same teachers as last year. There are no teachers in the county giving patrons of schools better satisfaction than Earlington's efficient corps.

A Query.

Why would it not be well to adopt some other method of calling out the winter crop? It is the custom, and it seems to wake up the whole town, in order to get less than a dozen men. City dad, put this in your pipe and smoke it.

A Good Sermon.

On Sunday night, at the Baptist church in this city, by Rev. Banks, of Barstow, a regular old-fashioned Baptist sermon was preached from the text: 2d Peter, 5th chapter 6th and 7th verses: "Humble yourselves therefore under the mighty hand of God, in an easy yoke and lowly behavior. Casting off your care upon him, for he cares for you." The audience was probably fat, and paid respectful attention throughout his discourse.

They Didn't Advertise.

Owing to non-attendance, the recent Wednesday night at the opera house was deferred. The non-attendance was due more to insufficient advertising than to any other direct cause. The program usually rendered by this excellent troupe is a good one, but Prof. Vitalo is too jovial a fellow, and enjoys a joke too well, to permit this troupe to play to empty theater houses.

Old Hopkins in the Lead.

It will not be difficult for our readers to learn that Hopkins County, in the timber exhibit at the World's Fair has more specimens than any other State in the Union. She holds up to the "Jim-jams" judgment in completeness of her collection, less specimens, but has beaten into record and memory, the "Jim-jams" of all the timber states.

Two Reward.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages since it was Hall's Cataract, the only positive cure known to the medical fraternity. Cataract being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Cataract is taken internally, acting the system directly, and the cataract is removed, giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its powers, that they offer One Hundred for any case that fails to cure. Send for list of Testimonials.

The largest private yacht afloat is young Mr. Laycock's Vahala, built upon the Clyde. It is about 1,700 tons, is built of steel and is ship-rigged with an auxiliary screw.

Last year I was taken with a bad fever, accompanied, with a wonderful diarrhea. Soon after my wife's sister, who lived with us, was taken in the same way. We used almost everything without benefit. Then I said, let us try Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhea Remedy. It worked perfectly right away. I think much of it, as it did for me as it was recommended to do.

Why People Are Afraid Of Cyclones.

People gradually become accustomed to floods and fires, but it is not in the nature of man to regard with indifference cyclones and earthquakes. The world has not yet learned a way to arrest these subterranean and earth disturbances. The chances are that they never will.—New York Tribune.

To a Cold.

Colds neglected are the foundation for many of the diseases afflicting man as well as domestic animals.

A cold causes the pores of the skin to dilate, so that heat is easily lost, and that usually escapes through the outlet and then back upon the lungs, into the stomach, bowels and every function of the body.

"For a cold, take a large dose of Cardell's German Liver Powder at bed time. This will clear the bowels, stimulate the action of the liver and aid digestion. Take when you are grained and, if possible, add to some meal or soup for participation. Keep yourself protected from cold on the following day, and your cold will be cured. This treatment never fails Price, 25c per bottle at Robinson Bros. drug store.

Presence of Mind.

An anecdote, showing that the presence of mind of a lady of the last century was quite equal to that celebrated Frau von Stein. While entertaining some guests at dinner a servant entered the room bearing aloft in magnificent style the de resistance, a fine saddle of venison.

Owing, however, to some lack of dexterity on the fellow's part, the meat, greatly to the consternation of all present, slipped off the platter and fell into the carpeted position and lay upon the floor.

But the lady of the house, the least disconcerted of all calmly remarked, "Take it away and bring in the other piece."

When the "other piece," which had been redecorated and the Duke of Weimar, one of the guests, was asked if he might be served to some, he was unable to refrain from a joke and replied: "Thank you, I prefer some of the other piece."

How the quick witted hostess met this blow is not stated by the chronicler.—New York Times.

Sick Headache.

Nervous or sick headache usually causes derangement of the stomach. Most "head-ache cures" are narcotics, which depress the brain and interfere with the action of the stomach and bowels and render the cause, the headache, worse.

"The fact is that I have just come from a doctor's office, and he told me that if you mean that you have bought something expensive and charged it, you will take it back again right away."
